PROGRAM STATEMENT GOALS AND DELIVERY

Macklin House Daycare follows "How Does Learning Happen? Ontario's Pedagogy for the Early Years (2014)" as the guiding document under the Child Care and Early Years Act, 2014.

Our licensed centers are guided by the foundations of belonging, well-being, engagement, and expression in children where the goals and expectations integrate the six guiding principles of ELECT (Early Learning for Every Child Today).

Play-based learning allows children to learn at their own pace and comfort level. Through exploration, play and inquiry children are given the opportunity to be creative and innovative as they learn. Children have the opportunity to create, challenge and engage.

Macklin House Daycare believes children are competent, capable of complex thinking, curious and rich in potential. Enriched environments, nurturing adult interactions, support, and the freedom to explore are the milestones that enable children to become self-motivated learners.

We endeavor to support children's social and emotional growth. Trained and nurturing staff promote children's social and emotional development, recognizing that these are key foundational skills for success later in life. Role modelling, full engagement in children's play, and environments that are constructed with social and emotional health in mind, are just a few of the ways we do this.

We believe that there is strength in our differences and celebrate our diversity. Families come in various shapes and sizes. Parents are children's first and most important teachers -We endeavor to partner with parents to raise resilient, healthy, successful people. Our program is designed to create a safe, warm, and inviting place for families to learn and grow together. Parents are always welcome to participate, share, network and get involved.

Belonging. Well-being. Engagement.

Expression Belonging

Refers to a sense of connectedness to others, an individual's experiences of being valued, of forming relationships with others and making contributions as part of a group, a community, the natural world.

Goal

Every child has a sense of belonging when he or she is connected to others and contributes to their world.

Approach

We endeavor to deliver this foundation by providing children with familiarity and consistency. Children are grouped according to age and development.

Our program brings aspects of the child's family and culture to the classroom. Celebrating diverse holidays, displaying photos of children's homes, family members, artifacts, clothing, culturally diverse music, and games exudes a sense of familiarity, security and belonging.

Addresses the importance of physical and mental health and wellness. It incorporates capacities such as self-care, sense of self, and self-regulation skills.

Goal

The health, safety, nutritional needs and well-being of children are very important and we know are foundational to children's ability to learn. Health and safety practices and these are reviewed by all staff on a regular basis and promote health, safety, nutrition(well-being) in children

We endeavor to achieve this goal by:

Through this type of play and inquiry, they develop skills such as problem solving, creative thinking, and innovating, which are essential for learning and success in school and beyond.

Our Staff are committed listen and observe children to facilitate a deeper understanding of children's interests and perspectives.

Provides children ample opportunity to direct their play and explore new ideas and expand old ones. The role of adults in children's play is to enhance the children's experiences, not to take over or determine the direction of the play.

Adults support ideas, provide resources and materials, help children reflect on what they know and think, and provide emotional support and encouragement.

Children will have the opportunity to:

Explore, and manipulate a variety of materials that promote discovery

Can share interests with staff, peers, and parents

Opportunity to have individual and group activities

Plan for and create positive learning environments and experiences in which each child's learning and development will be supported

Plan for and create positive learning environments and experiences in which each child's learning and development will be supported

Working collaboratively, staff and children learn together. There is much to learn from children and through inquiry, open-ended questions, provocation and hands on experiences, our staff extend children's learning and challenge thinking.

Documenting children's learning allows children to visualize their work and promote self-esteem and encourage children to revisit and think about their experiences.

In addition, the documentation helps the adults to better understand children's perspectives and ideas, and when appropriate work with children to encourage further exploration of knowledge and ideas.

Staff will provide children with the opportunity explore and discover.

Using program postings, monthly reflections and documentation, staff will offer insight and feedback about children's learning and activities while participating in the program.

Expression

communication (to be heard, as well as to listen) may take many different forms. Through their bodies, words, and use of materials, children develop capacities for increasingly complex communication.

Opportunities to explore materials support creativity, problem solving, and mathematical behaviors.

Language-rich environments support growing communication skills, which are foundational for literacy.

Goal

Every child is a capable communicator who expresses himself or herself in many ways

Approach

The ability to express thoughts, emotions, needs and wants is an essential part of healthy growth and development for children. Children who can express themselves in a variety of ways feel more competent and are able to develop and communicate effectively.

Expression through music, dance, song and art, storytelling, conversation, and behaviour are all forms of expression.

Our program will enhance children's abilities by offering children a variety of ways to explore and develop communication competence.

SUPPORT POSITIVE AND RESPONSIVE INTERACTIONS AMONG CHILDREN, PARENTS STAFF AND COMMUNITY PARTNERS

Goal

Macklin House Daycare Center fosters collaborative partnerships with children, parents, staff, and community partners. A positive environment is based on open communication, parallel goals, and trust among all the individuals that provide care for each child and among children.

Young children benefit from an affirming approach that encourages positive interactions with other children and with adults, rather than from a negative or punitive approach to managing unwanted behavior. 1

Approach

We endeavor to deliver this goal by providing a positive, welcoming environment that promotes a sense of belonging for children and each person that is associated with care of each child.

Our program endeavors partnering with children to attain positive relationships and create opportunities for children to develop positive behaviors and self-concept.

Behavior guidance is set in a positive, age-appropriate manner that is reinforced by clear guidelines and limits. Children are given the opportunities to interact, learn and develop respect for themselves, others, and their environment.

Appropriate and consistent limits will be established, based on the children's ages and developmental needs, to ensure a safe and healthy environment for both the children and the adults in the program.

By providing the above, children are better able to cope with emotions and self-regulate from a negative circumstance.

The classroom belongs to everyone and is reflective of the cultures and diversity of the children, families, and staff. We endeavor to create a sense of belonging, familiarity, comfort by ensuring that each child, family, staff, is represented in the classroom via mediums such as photos, music, and art crafts.

Our staff will promote positive interactions by listening to children, accommodate children's needs, use positive body language, interacting with them at their level and responding to cues from the children. Staff will use positive, age-appropriate language (no yelling) with children.

We endeavor to work alongside parents to gain insight into children's needs and capabilities. Parents know their children best – this will assist us in learning about each child's interests and limits. This will assist us in creating experiences that will enable children to grow.

Children, staff, parents, caregivers, and community partners are a team. We encourage positive conversations among all on a daily basis.

ENCOURAGE POSITIVE INTERACTION, COMMUNICATION AND ABILITY TO SELF – REGULATE IN CHILDREN

Goal

Delivering age appropriate, play based learning environments facilitate positive interaction, communication, and the ability for children to self- regulate.

Approach

We endeavor to deliver this goal by organizing our programs (classrooms) according to age and development. Each room is equipped with age and developmentally appropriate equipment and furnishings that facilitate exploration through play.

Each classroom has small groups that facilitate personal attention and relationships between children and educators. Small groups and consistent staff create opportunities and facilitate positive interactions, trust, and communication between children and educators. Educators can facilitate exploration of materials, conversations, and exploration.

In small groups children are better able to focus on activities, avoid distractions and explore at their own pace and staff can model positive interaction and behavior.

By giving children, the opportunity to recognize and reflect on how their actions may affect another child we are able to teach them about consequences of their actions, resolve conflicts, be responsible and give them an opportunity to self-regulate.

The above is not an inclusive listing, rather examples of children not being well.

A doctor's note confirming that a child can return to the center is required.

ANAPHYLACTIC ALLERGIES

All parents who have children that have been diagnosed with an Anaphylaxis must:

- Complete our Anaphylactic Allergy Protocol and have it signed by the family physician.
- If an Epinephrine Injector is required, an injector must remain at our program.
- Parents must provide a photo of the child that will be posted along with the signed protocol form in the child's classroom.

Parents will consult and train staff in the use of the injector prior to the start of care and yearly thereafter.

Allergy and Anaphylaxis Policy Statement

The Center may from time to time have to consider the issue of a child with allergies that may be life threatening. These allergies may include a condition known as anaphylaxis. Anaphylaxis is a severe, potentially life-threatening allergic shock brought about by exposure to certain foods and other substances. Peanuts and peanut by-products, such as peanut oil and peanut butter, are the most common allergies that trigger an anaphylactic reaction. Other foods, however, such as eggs, strawberries, fish, shellfish, wheat, and soy as well as non-food items such as latex and bee stings, can also bring about a life-threatening allergic reaction.

The staff of Macklin House Daycare receive annual training regarding the signs and symptoms of anaphylaxis and Epinephrine use. The Anaphylactic Policy is reviewed and signed off by each employee prior to start of employment.

Although the center does not prepare nor serve foods that contain nuts or nut products, it cannot be deemed to be free of foods and nonfood items that may lead to a severe allergic or anaphylactic reaction. The center will make every reasonable effort to reduce the risk to children with severe allergies or anaphylaxis in accordance with this policy and considering the physical and cultural circumstances of the day care itself. Creating an environment which reduces the risks to severely allergic or anaphylactic children will require the cooperation of all parents, staff members and visitors to the program. The parents of a severely allergic or anaphylactic child must discuss their child's condition and any concerns they have with the Center's policies and procedures at any time with the Supervisor or the Director.

As with other policies at the center, parents, children, and staff are expected to comply with this policy.

Awareness and Notification

Parents of children who are known to be allergic or anaphylactic must inform the center of the child's condition, the foods and non-food substances that trigger a reaction, the symptoms of a reaction and the required treatment before the child is admitted to the center.

The parents of the child must review and discuss this information and this policy with the center before the child is admitted to the day care. The Supervisor and the parents will discuss the policies of the center and the limitations on the Providers' ability to accommodate certain conditions. These limitations include the physical condition of the premises, the number of children attending the day care and the fact that the day care Provider may attend other facilities or organizations during the day.

The center may refuse to admit a child when the Provider is uncomfortable. The parents of a child who is enrolled in the day care will be asked to sign a consent that reflects the conditions under which their child will be admitted into the day care. Further, once registered the center may request that the child be removed from the center if the center is not comfortable that the child's condition can be reasonably accommodated. The parents will be asked to sign a consent that reflects the conditions under which their child will be permitted to continue to attend the program.

In the event a child is diagnosed with a severe allergy or anaphylaxis after being admitted to the center, the parents must also inform the center of the child's condition, the foods and non-food substances that trigger a reaction, the symptoms of a reaction and the required treatment. The parents of the child must review and discuss this information with the Supervisor immediately upon learning of the child's condition.

Once admitted to the center, the identity and condition of the child will be communicated to the staff, students, and /Or any volunteers at the center. The parents of the other children at the day care will also be informed that a child (children) with a severe allergy or anaphylaxis is attending the center.

Outside Food

Parents are encouraged not to bring outside food/snacks into the day care but if you provide your own food/snacks you must clear your meal plan with the center to make sure the allergen is not present.

It is also recognized that there are certain festive occasions, such as Halloween, Easter, Christmas, Passover, and other occasions, that feature foods that cannot be guaranteed not to contain an allergen that may trigger an allergic or anaphylactic reaction. The Provider will make every effort to manage the introduction of foods associated with these occasions. The center will notify the parents of the anaphylactic child of the occasion, the foods and the precautions that are being taken to protect the child.

Non-Food Allergens

The Center will make reasonable efforts to take precautions to prevent reactions to non-food allergens. This will include the removal of insect nests and the proper storage of garbage. Other less common allergens will be dealt with on an individual basis.

Prevention and Response

It is the responsibility of the parents of the anaphylactic child to ensure that the center is properly informed of their child's condition on an on-going basis, the foods that trigger an allergic or anaphylactic reaction, the symptoms of a reaction, the treatment protocol supplied by the child's doctor and that the center supplied sufficient epinephrine injectors to treat an anaphylactic reaction. This information will be summarized in an allergy report, which, together with a photograph of the child, will be maintained in both the child's classroom and in the office.

Epinephrine injectors are to be provided by the parents and will be kept at the center in an accessible and well-marked place. Parents are responsible for ensuring that the information concerning their child's condition is current and that the supplies of epinephrine are maintained. Parents will also be required to train the supervisor on procedures to be followed in the event a severe allergic reaction occurs. The Supervisor will be responsible for training the staffing team of the same. A signed consent form allowing the center staff to use epinephrine injectors when they consider it necessary.

Parents must ensure that the centre is informed of the child's condition and that this information is reviewed on an annual basis or earlier if any changes have taken place. The Anaphylactic protocol will be submitted along with a physician's signature.

In an event of a severe allergic reaction, the approved steps outlined in the anaphylactic protocol will be followed. Sample of protocol attached.

Please consult with your onsite supervisor before any food products are sent in.

Although we encourage and monitor that these products do NOT enter our facility - we cannot guarantee their exclusion.

Strategy to reduce the risk of exposure to anaphylactic causative Agents

- Parents are encouraged not to bring outside food/snacks into our program but if you provide your own food/snacks you must clear foods/snacks with the center to make sure the allergen is not present. This includes packed lunches during PA days, Winter Break, March Break, and Summer Camps.
- All food/drinks brought into the program must be clearly labeled with the child's name
- Children and staff MUST wash their hands before eating and/or serving food. Table surfaces where children will be eating meals and snacks SHALL be properly disinfected before and after use
- Place food on a napkin or wax paper rather than in direct contact with a desk or table.
- Educate children, children and staff regarding anaphylaxis and provide learning opportunities.

Communication Plan

- A copy of this Anaphylaxis Policy SHALL be included in the MHDC parent information package which is provided to all families upon registration.
- All parents MUST identify their child(s) allergies on the registration form.
- When a written diagnosis and an auto injector has been prescribed for the child from a physician identifying a child at risk of anaphylaxis an individual anaphylaxis emergency plan ("Individual Plan") must be completed by the parent prior to start of program.
- Allergy lists and individual emergency plans will be posted in conspicuous places in the centres.
- A copy of each Individual Plan SHALL be posted in the child's room as well as attached to the child's emergency card.
- All staff will be made aware of the location of auto injectors.
- A letter will be provided for every parent to review which includes information regarding life threatening allergies including anaphylaxis in the centre.
- List of allergies of enrolled children will be sent to the caterer
- List of allergies will be posted in classroom/food preparation areas
- Caterer will be advised of foods/causative agents not be used in food prepared for the program

Roles & Responsibilities:

OneSite Supervisor:

Ensure that there is a discussion with parents regarding the policies of the childcare and the limitations on the childcare's ability to accommodate certain conditions before admission to MHDC or once an allergy is diagnosed.

Ensure an Individual Emergency Plan is received as per requirements by the parent before the child starts the program.

Ensure staff are trained on procedures to be followed in the event of a child having an anaphylactic reaction; and

UPDATED BY HEAD OFFICE : JAN 01, 2025

Ensure the Anaphylactic Policy, the individual plans each child with anaphylaxis and the emergency procedures in respect of each child are reviewed by all employees before they begin their employment, and by all volunteers and students before they begin providing their care or supervision. Each person above shall review the plans annually or at any other time when a change is made to the policy, plan, or procedure.

Ensure that the individual plan is posted as per requirement, in child's classroom, emergency profile and (office where applicable)

The OneSite Supervisor will review how to use an EpiPen®, and/or administer the prescribed treatment with the staff, students, and volunteers.

Staff

Staff will be responsible for knowing the health protocols for each child attending MHDC and for mitigating risk of accidental exposure to the best of their ability.

All staff will review and sign off on the anaphylactic policy, the individual plans for each child with anaphylaxis and the emergency procedures in respect of each child before they begin employment and annually after the first review and at any other time when changes are made to the policy, plan, or procedure.

Volunteers/Students

Volunteers/ Students will review and sign off on the anaphylactic policy, the individual plans for each child with anaphylaxis and the emergency procedures in respect of each child before they begin with MHDC and at any other time when changes are made to the policy, plan, or procedure.

Harm Reduction Strategies:

Food:

1. MHDC recommends that parents and children are not to bring outside food to MHDC. Food will be provided and prepared by MHDC and an associated catering company, including food associated with special occasions (i.e., events). The decision to restrict outside foods is based on the need to reduce the risk of accidental exposure to allergens.
2. Children with extreme allergies that the Centre cannot accommodate will be asked to bring their own food from home and must be labelled documented as per our outside food policy.
3. The On-Site Supervisor will, on certain occasions or in the case of individual children on the written request of a parent, permit outside food to be brought into the childcare, subject to certain conditions. These special conditions will be at the discretion of the On-Site Supervisor, but it is recognized that more restrictive conditions will apply if an allergic or anaphylactic child is attending the childcare.

Given that anaphylaxis can be triggered by minute amounts of an allergen children with food allergies must be encouraged to follow certain guidelines:

- Children and staff must Wash hands before and after eating
- Do not share food, utensils, or containers
- All labels will be read by a staff member prior to serving.
- Foods with nut warnings will not be served.
i.e., "May Contain traces of peanut/nut" or "Manufactured in a facility that processes peanuts/nuts"

UPDATED BY HEAD OFFICE : JAN 01, 2025

- Any person supplying food to the childcare will be notified of all life-threatening allergies in the Centre. List of allergies will be revised, as necessary.
- All surfaces will be cleaned with a cleaning solution (approved by Public Health) prior to and after preparing and serving food.
- If a staff member is doing a baking/cooking activity, s/he must ensure that children with a food allergy to any ingredient in the recipe are not permitted to come near that table. No food items with nuts are allowed.
- All cleaning supplies, medicines and any other products that may be in danger and/or commonly produce allergic reactions will be stored away.
- Playground areas will be checked and monitored for insects such as wasps. The Onsite Supervisor of the Centre will be notified immediately, and children will not be allowed to play in this area.
- Staff will have use of a cellphone on all excursions.

BEHAVIOR GUIDANCE POLICY

Macklin House Daycare's Behavior Guidance Policy intends to ensure that there is a partnership of trust, safety and positive relationship between adults and children in the program. Our program endeavors partnering with children to attain positive relationships and create opportunities for children to develop positive behaviors and self-concept.

Behavior guidance is set in a positive, age-appropriate manner that is reinforced by clear guidelines and limits. Children are given the opportunities to interact, learn and develop respect for themselves, others, and their environment.

Appropriate and consistent limits will be established, based on the children's ages and developmental needs, to ensure a safe and healthy environment for both the children and the adults in the program.

By providing the above, children are better able to cope with emotions and self-regulate from a negative circumstance.

Young children benefit from an affirming approach that encourages positive interactions with other children and with adults, rather than from a negative or punitive approach to managing unwanted behavior.

Macklin House Daycare will incorporate methods of encouraging acceptable behaviour by:

- Providing a sufficient and varied number of developmentally appropriate activities.
- Providing activities based on children's interests
- Being aware of the developmental levels of the children
- Being aware of interactions occurring within the classroom and redirecting negative or inappropriate behaviours in a positive manner
- Allowing children to make choices as often as possible
- Providing reminders of the established limits
- Clarifying and reinforcing limits
- Providing age-appropriate explanations for the limits that have been established
- Promoting the child's development of independent self-control
- Giving children cues about transition times so they know what to expect
- Redirecting negative or inappropriate behaviours to positive ones before they escalate
- Staff modelling appropriate and acceptable behaviours (respect for others, personal space)
- Focusing on the behaviour rather than the child by establishing clear limits in a positive and specific manner.
- Providing positive reinforcement for all positive behaviours exhibited by the children to promote the children's understanding of what behaviours are expected and encouraged.
- Providing time, guidance, and encouragement to self-regulate.

CHILD ABUSE REPORTING

In Ontario, it is the Law that anyone dealing with children in a professional relationship who suspects a child has been abused, whether suggested by the physical condition or from something the child says, is obliged to call Children's Aid for advice and then to follow that advice.

The Centre does not investigate or lay blame, it simply reports and follows the Agency's directions. Similarly, if a parent, staff or other, accuses a staff member of abuse, it is the duty of the center to report the accusation to the Children's Aid Society and follow the direction given.

The role of the Society is to protect children. Most reports to them are followed up if they believe there is substance to them.

The Centre may not, under Labour Law, dismiss a member of staff on an accusation. Abuse would have to be proven through investigation by the Children's Aid Society.

SERIOUS OCCURRENCE REPORTING

All Licensed Child Care Centers are to report any accident or incident that is deemed to be a Serious Occurrence to the Ministry.

All Serious Occurrences will be posted within 24 hours of the incident for a period of ten days on the parent board as per our policy on the parent board located adjacent to the office.

In the case of an abuse allegation, the notice will be posted within the 24 hours of the investigation being completed and will remain posted for a period of ten days

SUPERVISION OF STUDENTS AND VOLUNTEERS

Macklin House Daycare from time to time accepts students and volunteers at the program.

All volunteers/Students/Parents will require a criminal reference check. As per our policy Volunteers and Students must be directly supervised by a staff member.

VULNERABLE SECTOR SCREENING

Our agency requires that all staff, students, volunteers, and others must submit a Vulnerable Screening Report.

FIRST AID AND CPR

Our agency requires that all staff be trained in Level C Infant and Child First Aid and CPR

ACCIDENT AND INCIDENT DOCUMENTATION

All accidents or incidents that occur while your child is in our care are recorded. Parents will be informed of any accident or incident that occurs while at the center. An accident or Incident form documenting and giving details of the accident/incident will be completed. A copy of the report will be given to the parents.

OFF SITE ACTIVITIES AND EXCURSIONS

Occasionally the center will go offsite on walks and organize field trips. Supervision of children will always be maintained.

- the ages of the children on the waiting list
- the length of time each child will be in an age group before having to transition to the next age group

- A child protection/welfare agency requests placement for a child.
- Children requiring full time care (5 days per week).
- Siblings of children currently registered in our program
- Children living within the school boundaries and attending their home school.

Our waitlists are managed by the supervisor of each location. Our wait list information maintains the privacy of the children listed on it. However, the information regarding the status and the position on the wait is available to the parents.
